CIRCULATION & QI-FLOW RULES

- 3 Yin meridians of the hand run chest -> hand, converging with the 3 Yang meridians of the hand (exterior-interior pairs) at the fingertips.
- 3 Yang meridians of the hand ascend from the fingertips to the head, where they connect with the 3 Yang meridians of the foot.
- 3 Yang meridians of the foot descend from the head to the toes, where they join the 3 Yin meridians of the foot.
- 3 Yin meridians of the foot ascend from the toes to the abdomen and chest, meeting the 3 Yin meridians of the hand -- closing the full circuit.

DISTRIBUTION RULES

Limbs -- medial aspect:

Yin meridians: Anterior=Taiyin, Middle=Jueyin, Posterior=Shaoyin

Limbs -- lateral aspect:

Yang meridians: Anterior=Yangming, Middle=Shaoyang, Posterior=Taiyang

Head & Trunk:

Anterior=Yangming, Posterior=Taiyang, Lateral=Shaoyang

EYE LANDMARKS

Bladder (BL):

Starts at the inner canthus (BL1 Jingming).

Gallbladder (GB):

Starts at the outer canthus (GB1 Tongziliao).

Small Intestine (SI):

A branch goes to the outer canthus; another travels below the eye to the inner canthus (only meridian connecting BOTH).

Sanjiao (SJ):

A branch runs from behind the ear to the outer canthus.

Liver (LR):

Follows the throat upward, connects to the 'Eye System'.

Heart (HT):

A branch links the heart to the 'Eye System' via the throat.

Stomach (ST):

Ascends to the bridge of the nose, where it meets the Bladder meridian at the inner canthus.

NEXT WEEK: FINAL EXAM

CONFIRMED via both the live transcript and the 2026 slide deck's own final slide: NEXT WEEK IS THE COMPREHENSIVE FINAL EXAM (material from Weeks 1-9, 30 questions per Dr. Zhang's verbal answer in class). No new quiz or homework was assigned this week -- Dr. Zhang stated in lecture that Homework 5 (from Week 7/8) was still outstanding for some students and reminded the class to submit it before the final, since grades close after the exam. This Quiz Kit and Cram Sheet are self-test review material for that comprehensive final, not a stand-in for a new graded quiz.
